

BUSINESS CENTRE UPDATE

Issue

The October 11, 2022 update from the Fire & Rescue and Municipal Enforcement Business Centres is presented to Council.

Motion Proposed by Administration

That the October 11, 2022 Business Centre Update presentation be accepted as presented.

Report, Analysis and Financial Implications

In April 2022, the Chief Administrative Officer's Report was removed from Council's agenda with the adoption of a new Council Procedure Bylaw. In order to provide additional progress information in 2022, Business Centre Updates are occurring July to October.

This is the fifth of six reports to Council and highlights progress over the past year for the Fire & Rescue, and Municipal Enforcement business centres.

CAO Comments

Council has three non-delegable tasks that it must perform, one of which is to have assured organizational performance. This is the fifth Business Centre report that attempts to create an annual picture of performance reporting so Council can review the services and service levels being provided to the community.
